NORTHLAND HAS NEW CAPTAIN

Alliance Leaves for Coos Bay—Northland, Alexander Black, Virginia and Arctic Stream Cross in—Old-Time Captain Returns to This Port

The bar misbehaved commencing the day and ending it turbulently. The wind blew from the south all day and starting at 8 o'clock a. m. with a velocity of 25 miles increased to 35 miles at noon. The bar moderated some at this time but at 4 o'clock it was again rough and the wind was blowing 40 miles an hour. During the forenoon a light rain commenced to fall and at dark it was still falling. Several boats crossed in during the moderate condition of the bar and are safe inside.

The Alliance crossed out to sea at 9:30 yesterday morning for Coos Bay.

The steamer Northland arrived here yesterday morning at 9 o'clock and left up at 10:30. Capt. Erickson, a well known and popular master is now in command. He was formerly captain of the Aurelia.

The Norwegian steamer Haldis is anchored in the Columbia, off Kalama. She went to that place to load lumber but as yet has not commenced loading. It is said that some differences have come up between the shippers and the owners of the vessel and pending a settlement of them nothing is being done towards preparing her for sea.

The British steamer Alexander Black arrived in yesterday, 13 days from San Diego. She comes in ballast to load grain for the United Kingdom. Captain Griffith, her jolly skipper, was busy yesterday afternoon shaking the hands of many of his old-time pilot friends whom he has not seen for 13 years, the time elapsing since his last trip here.

The British ship Arctic stream arrived in yesterday after a very fast run of 147 days from Rotterdam. Captain Dixon reports having had a splendid trip all the way. She will probably leave up tomorrow.

The Claverdon has not yet put to sea but it is thought that there will be but little further delay in her departure.

The schooner Virginia, from San Francisco, arrived in yesterday afternoon to load lumber.

The Chinook has been repaired and will go on her run today.

Pilot Walker is on the Lurline, temporarily, taking Pilot McCully's place during the latter's absence at Portland where he is taking an examination for a master's license.

The schooner John A. Campbell arrived in yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, from San Pedro. She will load lumber for California. Captain Robert Wilson reports having spoken the schooner Manilla, bound for Gray's Harbor, about 80 miles off shore. He also spoke the ship Mil-tonburg on January 27th in lat. 39.04 N. Long. 140.10 W. She was bound for Queenstown, and asked to be reported.

The Breakwater is due to leave here for Coos Bay this morning.

The George W. Elder is scheduled to leave here, for San Francisco and San Pedro tomorrow morning.

The British steamer St. Hugo will be down from Portland some time today. She has 5200 tons of grain. She will go to Europe via Suez Canal, and will coal at Moji, Japan, and Colombo, Ceylon.

The British ship Lady Wolseley, grain-laden, arrived down at 9 a. m. Sunday. She is lying in the harbor with several of her crew ill with pneumonia, and may be delayed in going to sea on that account.

The British steamer Mortlake which arrived on Sunday, in ballast from Guaymas, failed to reach here in time to save her charter, the cancelling date having occurred eight days ago. She has evidently been re-chartered as her captain has received orders to proceed to Portland to load lumber, and she left up yesterday.

The British ship Amazon is due down the river today bound for England with a cargo of grain.

INTERESTING EXPERIMENT.

Rotation of the Earth Demonstrated to a Nicety.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Foucault's demonstration of the movement of the earth was repeated in New York yesterday when a cannon ball weighing 140 pounds suspended by a single wire 91 feet long, from the dome of St. Paul's chapel at Columbia University, was set swinging. A fine camel's hair brush attached to the bottom of the ball passed over an ink pad as the ball swung and clearly marked its course on an eight-foot dial on the chapel floor. Although it was thought that there was a slightly elliptical movement of the giant pendulum, it was not enough to interfere with the success of the experiment and the marks of the brush upon the dial plainly revealed the rotation of the earth on its axis. The experiment will be repeated next Friday and again a week from tomorrow. The experiment was first tried in the Pantheon in Paris in 1851 by Prof. Foucault.

"PAYING THE PIPER."

HELENA, Mont., Feb. 4.—A special to the Independent from San Diego, Cal., says: Irving H. Brookhouse, 35 years old, formerly of Kalispell, Mont., committed suicide yesterday at San Bernardino, California, as the result of remorse over a crime committed 10 years ago. After shooting himself in the abdomen, he confessed to the chief of police that he and a partner had burned their Kalispell packing house to secure the insurance. Brookhouse was a member of a prominent Massachusetts family, and a letter to his father at Athol, Mass., requesting the latter to partly reimburse an insurance company for the wrong.

THE STAR THEATRE.

The good houses that are getting the performances at the Star Theatre attest the appreciation of the people for a good show.

The Electric Sisters open the program with very pretty singing and graceful dancing. Prior and Norris do a very neat comedy sketch that arouses laughter. Arthur Collins in Irish monologue is very good and his dancing above the average. Dick Hutchins sings "Cheyenne" this week, the pictures being an adjunct to his good singing. The moving pictures of which there are two sets are as fine as were ever shown at this house. A complete change of program will be made tomorrow night.

MIXTURE TO CLEAN BAD BLOOD

BY ACTING ON THE KIDNEYS—HOME VEGETABLE MIXTURE WHICH FORCES KIDNEYS TO FILTER OUR IMPURITIES.

All medical authorities are agreed that the blood is the great source of disease or of health in the human system. If the blood is pure, the individual is strong and healthy, if the blood is impure or diseased then there is sickness or decay in the whole system.

Rheumatism is strictly a blood disease. It is caused by excessive uric acid. Sores, pimples, etc., mean bad blood. Catarrhal affections must be treated through the blood to get permanent results. To get well, to feel strong, hearty and vigorous one must have good clean blood and lots of it. You can't clean the blood thoroughly unless the kidneys are made active. Bad blood means clogged, inactive kidneys and liver which causes, too, such symptoms as backache, nervousness bladder and urinary difficulties and other sympathetic troubles.

Here is a simple home remedy and the recipe for making it up is as follows:

Fluid Extract Dandelion one-half ounce, Compound Kargon one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime. The ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy at small cost.

Here the readers of this paper have a simple yet powerful and effective remedy for all forms of blood, kidney and bladder disease which should relieve rheumatism and catarrhal affections and replace that weak, worn-out indifferent feeling with strength, vigor and health.

TRIBUTES OF SORROW.

California Portuguese Send Message to Their Queen.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 4.—Telegrams of condolence to the Queen mother of Portugal expressing the profound sorrow of 50,000 Portuguese who live in this state, were sent to Lisbon yesterday the Society of the Holy Spirit and the Society of the Portuguese of California. King Carlos was honorary president of both these societies.

Telegraph from all over the state have been pouring into the headquarters of these two societies and the messages sent were in response to a universal demand from the Portuguese in this state.

Consul-General I. de Costa Duarte has wired the Portuguese ambassador at Washington to ask what kind of memorial ceremony should be held here in honor of the memory of the late king, but has not heard from his chief.

The consulate in this city has been closed since the news of the regicide reached San Francisco

Discolored Necks.

One of the common physical defects to which women are prone is a discolored neck, due, it may be, to dyes from the clothing or to hair lotions, pomades, etc., which work down from the head. Of course, barring the possibility of sunburn, the skin on the neck should have the same hue as that on the shoulders. It is well, however, before resorting to artificial means, to see what hot water, a coarse wash cloth and plenty of good soap will do in removing the discoloration. If a month of this natural treatment does not bleach the neck anoint it daily with peroxide of hydrogen. In case this irritates the skin a little vaseline or sweet almond oil may be rubbed in after the chemical has dried.

Baked Beans and Olive Oil.

To bake beans with olive oil is the fashion among those who are vegetarians and those who detest pork. The Housekeeper says: "To some natures pork in any shape is repugnant. For those who do not relish it in baked beans the following way of preparing this popular dish is recommended as being especially delicious: Soak one pint of beans overnight. Parboil next morning, using a little soda. When the skin can be blown off easily, drain and cover with boiling water. Add two tablespoonfuls of olive oil and one-fourth of a cupful of molasses. Sprinkle with salt, pepper and mustard. If liked very sweet, add a half instead of a fourth of a cupful of molasses."

Anglicized French.

For two centuries we have been crying "Encore" at the end of a song, where a Frenchman never says it, his own equivalent for it strangely being the Latin "Bis!" And "on the tapis" appears in English far more often than in French, and misunderstood at that, since it does not mean "on the carpet," but on the tablecloth of the council table for discussion.—London Chronicle.

IN BEHALF OF KING.

Swedish Athlete Reaches America to Study Sports Here.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Bruno Soderstrom, a prominent Swedish amateur athlete, arrived in New York yesterday for the purpose of studying amateur athletics in this country. He comes as the personal representative of Gustave V, King of Sweden, and will report to him on his return regarding his observations and will also plan ways to increase in Sweden an interest in athletics.

Soderstrom is a pole vaulter and was second in the international competition at the Olympic games at Athens. While here he will visit the gymnasiums at various colleges, including Yale, Harvard, Pennsylvania, Cornell, West Point and Annapolis. Today he will meet Martin J. Sheridan, American champion all-around athlete and will be invited to take part in the Irish-American Club games at Madison Square Garden next Saturday.

KEPT AMBULANCE BUSY.

Three Calls in One Day to Man Who Refuses Hospital Aid.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Found unconscious three different times at different points on Broadway yesterday, a new ambulance record was established on account of James Duros of West Ninety-fifth street, three separate ambulance calls being sent in for him during the day. Each time he was revived and each time he refused to go to the hospital. Duros was first found by a policeman at Broadway and 104th street at 9:30 a. m. An ambulance called by the police took the man home. An automobile driver seeing Duros lying in the street at 4:30 o'clock, summoned an ambulance. The surgeon dressed a wound in the injured man's head and took him home in the ambulance. At 6:30 o'clock another policeman found Duros at Broadway and 103rd street in an epileptic fit. He was resuscitated a third time by the surgeon of an ambulance summoned to the spot and urged to go to the hospital. He again refused and again was taken home.

Senate Gavel Handleless.

It is an odd fact that the gavel used by the presiding officer of the senate has no handle, like that used by the speaker of the house. It is an ivory contrivance, modestly ornamented, of cylindrical shape and about four inches long. In wielding it the vice president has to hold the gavel in his hand as if it were a small hammer without a handle. How the custom originated of providing the vice president with a handleless gavel is not known, though the oldest senate attache cannot remember when it was otherwise, just as the oldest senate attache cannot remember when the gold snuffbox that occupies its ancient niche at the right of the vice president's raised desk was not dutifully filled every morning, although no statesman now patronizes that once popular box for a gentle sneeze.—Washington Herald.

Barbarians and Perfumes.

Though perfume may be the outcome of civilization and more lavishly used by nations well to the front in manners and polish, there are instances of people of great demoralization who use it in some of their horrible customs. The fetish men of Ashanti supply an illustration of this, who, for the benefit of young soldiers, concoct a mixture of blood, of human hearts and of fragrant herbs, and Bettany, quoting from Beecham, says, "All who have never before killed an enemy in battle eat of the preparation, it being believed that if they did not their energy would be secretly wasted by the haunting spirits of deceased foes."

A Bad Practice.

"I've a good notion," said Plodding Pete, "to join dis forestry association."
"What for?"
"I want de trees preserved in all delr venerable beauty. I want to see de monarchs of de wilderness left undisturbed in delr peaceful majesty. It's time dis practice of handlin' a man an ax an' tellin' him to chop wood was stopped."—Washington Star.

The Great Difference.

Poorman—Of course there's a big difference between a botanist and a florist. Ascum—Is there, really? Poorman—Yes; a botanist is one who knows all about flowers, and a florist is one who knows all about the prices people will pay.—Philadelphia Press.

Not a Chance!

Married men will certainly appreciate the grin humor of the Staten Island schoolboy who wrote in an epic, "Their foes in front, their wives behind—Impossible was flight!"—New York Herald.

It is well there is no one without a fault, for he would not have a friend in the world.—Hazlitt.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

A reasonable probability is the only certainty.

Every man makes a good husband for a while.

The clothes don't make a professional nurse by a long shot.

Occasionally imposition travels around under the garb of friendship.

When a man says money will do anything, that settles it; he hasn't any. The boy who plays truant from school never has as much fun as he anticipated.

Every day a man submits to some injustice he vowed yesterday he would never stand.

About the toughest thing that can happen to a man is to go contrary to his wife's judgment and then make a failure.—Achtson Globe.

Nervous New Yorkers.

"If anybody needs to be convinced that New Yorkers are a nervous lot, just let him peep under dining room tables at mealtime and see the position of the feet and he will have all the proof he wants," remarked the proprietor of a popular restaurant. "Not one person in a hundred sits with his feet planted squarely on the floor while eating. Some twist their feet around the legs of tables and chairs, some sit with them crossed, others rest the feet on the tips of the toes, while still others bear their whole weight down on the heel. Since it is only the flatly planted foot that indicates an equable temperament, it is easy to see what a nervous, irresponsible crowd what a nervous, irresponsible crowd what a nervous, irresponsible crowd really is."

SERIES OF FAREWELLS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—A second "farewell" within four days was sung last night by one of the German tenors on the Metropolitan Opera House. Heinrich Knotte had said his formal goodbye to a Metropolitan audience Friday night last in Wagner's "Tannhauser" fortunately he had not planned to leave for Europe until today. When last night it was found that an attack of hoarseness had made it impossible for Alois Burgstaller, tenor, to sing Tristan in Wagner's "Tristan and Isolde", Knotte was hurriedly sought. His trunks were already on the steamship in Hoboken, but Mr. Knotte said farewell all over again last night, singing brilliantly in the role to Mr. Gadsby's Isolde. He will sail today as originally planned.

The Commercial.

One of the coziest and most popular resorts in the city is the Commercial. A new billiard room, a pleasant sitting room and handsome fixtures all go to make an agreeable meeting place for gentlemen, there to discuss the topics of the day, play a game of billiards and enjoy the fine refreshments served there. The best of goods are only handled, and this fact being so well known, a large business is done at the Commercial, on Commercial street, near Eleventh.
